HATS IN THE RING.
When April Fool's day comes again—
And it will be here passing quick—
The ring will then be full of hats,
And every hat will hide a brick.

—Denver Republican.

At which, for that one day, at least,
It will as like as not be found,
That though we may not be for Ted,
We cannot kick his hat around.

—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

But we can fool around the ring
And find out early where we're at,
It may be we'll steal Teddy's doppo,
And just recall his burned old hat.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

CALL FOR REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Pursuant to a call of the Republican State Central Committee there will be a Republican County Convention at the Court House in the City of Mayville, Ky., on April 6th, 1912, at 1:30 p.m. for the purpose of selecting delegates to the District Convention which meets at Mayville on April 9th, 1912, and the State Convention which meets at Louisville, Ky., April 10th, 1912.

All Republicans are requested to keep this date in mind and be present at the convention.

H. P. TURNELL, Chairman
Mason County Republican Committee.
Mayville, Ky., March 25th, 1912.

PRESIDENT TAFT probably will not appoint a successor to Dr. HARVEY W. WILEY, of the Bureau of Chemistry, for several weeks.

The general lack of enthusiasm that has been noted since the Columbus speech seems ominous. It seems to portend a cold shoulder for Colonel ROOSEVELT at the convention. His egotism led him to believe that he would sweep the country with furore and capture the delegates if only he announced. There is a great difference, as Mr. BRYAN has learned, between tremendous personal popularity and great political strength. Colonel ROOSEVELT has had both, but it seems that he has lost nothing more than popularity.—Frankfort News-Journal.

What has the egregious Beveridge been about? Where is the evidence of his powerful influence? Not long ago, with huge headlines, ins surgent newspapers announced that Beveridge had come out for Roosevelt.

Indiana was confidently claimed as recking with insurgeney. But the primaries at Indianapolis are a better test than insurgent newspaper claims. The primaries at Indianapolis have defeated Roosevelt delegates and elected Taft delegates by majorities of an old-fashioned landslide character.

It means a great deal, for the people of Indiana are famous politicians and their predilections in the Presidential years are looked upon as straws indicating which way the wind is blowing. It is not a Roosevelt wind that is blowing in Indianapolis. The fact is the Roosevelt candidacy has fallen very flat, and the ex-President by this time must be convinced that he made a mistake.—Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.

Standard "Orbello" Lavatory

HAVE you ever considered your plumbing equipment from the standpoint of home health. There is no feature about the house that tends to maintain the health of yourself and family more than a sanitary plumbing equipment.

"Standard" Plumbing Fixtures and our high-grade workmanship provide every requisite of a sanitary and efficient plumbing equipment and insure permanent satisfaction.

FRANK S. NEWELL,
LEADING SANITARY PLUMBER, HEATER AND GAS FITTER.

How would you like to be the coal man? Since the world-wide strike the coal operators and large dealers have sold their stocks at an immense profit.

MR. TAFT is basing his campaign for re-nomination on a clear and dispassionate interpretation of the problems of the present day and his explanation of the danger of "soap box" Presidential preference primaries is certain to strengthen him with all thinking people.—Washington Post.

SENATOR BRADLEY is not the kind of man to get frightened over the use of a reasonable amount of "Long Green" by the opposition in Kentucky, nor is he frightened now. He is simply amazed over the reports that are coming to him of the money that is being turned loose in the Blue Grass commonwealth in the interest of Colonel ROOSEVELT. "There are oceans of it," said the Senator. "It's our worst handicap. I am getting reports from every locality in Kentucky and I speak advisedly when I say that oceans of money are being turned loose in aid of Colonel ROOSEVELT's candidacy.—Washington Cor. Louisville Herald.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Before a thief gets around to the "big haul" that will make him rich he lands in jail and loses his chance.

The man who is a "problem" should work it himself.

Were bill collectors not restrained by a rule that they must not "talk back," they could say meaner things than any other class of people.

In doing nothing you take up the time of busy people.

Every man occasionally thinks he has made a discovery as important as that of Columbus.

Some people are always looking for an outrage to scream about.

A woman wore mourning only two weeks, and some of the neighbors protested. "Well," she said, "I didn't have as much to mourn about as some: Bill wasn't much."

Now many passengers shave themselves, whether it is rough or smooth, and never patronize the barber's shop unless the ship is over toward her beam ends, which is the time the barbers don't want to shave any one.

Owing to this decline of business the steamship companies have had to reduce the rents charged for the barbers' shops on their liners, and in some cases they have had to pay as much as $40 a month to get the professors of the tonsorial art to go to the company, and one of its rates, 60c, section 8, read:

"Tubers of the White Star steam ships are not allowed to cut passengers' hair before noon."

All morning the barbers were kept busy, and in the afternoon from 4 o'clock until dinner time, scraping the chins of passengers who would not take a chance of cutting themselves with the old-fashioned razors as the ship pitched up and down or rolled from side to side.

Sau Skeggs, another roving barber, well known from the Hudson to the Yukon, said that the barber business on board ship since the advent of the safety razor gave him the funds. "All I can do today," said he, "is to cut hair and trim whiskers of passengers who do not know how to spend money or give tips."

Yesterdays, the art of coiffure to the sea in big ships for many days without making the razor on face to go. I am desirous because for the rent and my expenses."

As convincing proof of this, a prisoner of Polish birth was brought out to converse with an attorney of the illustrious attorney's office. The latter is somewhat of a linguist and boasts of being able to converse in 12 different languages. The prisoner, who was formerly engaged as a foreign banker, just went the young attorney three better. He demonstrated to the listeners that he was as familiar with 15 different tongues as he is with his native chatter. There are others in jail equally fluent, too.

All told, there are a score of prisoners now doing time in the prison who are able to converse fluently in half a dozen languages.

HAPPENINGS IN THE CITIES

Veteran and Bride Face Want for Love

timed a resident of the home. She became ill five months ago and I was assigned to wait on her.

"Well, we just got to talking to each other and decided that if younger folks could get married there wasn't any crime for older ones to do the same. I wanted a wife and she wanted a husband and we made up our minds that if we had to be thrown out into the cold world or anywhere else we would get married. I found that my heart was just as susceptible to love as when I was a youth and a whole regiment of Yankees couldn't have stopped us, either.

"There were two other couples in the Confederate Home at Higginsville because they became engaged and were married several weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Starns, both past 70 years old, came to try their future in Kansas City the other morning. The aged couple had just 15 cents when they arrived at the court house to apply for admission to the county home. Two small telescope suitcases contained all their worldly goods.

Mr. Starns told fondly about the romance of a few weeks and the courtship "on the sly" in the Confederate Home.

"You know, I was in Senator Corkell's brigade and saw hard service in Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia during the four years of the Civil war," Mr. Starns said. "I went to the Confederate Home eight years ago from Jackson county. There I met W.

H. Ellis, my wife's first husband. He died two years ago and his widow continue to live in the home.

The bride and groom were assigned to a room at the county home. Mrs. Starns has lived in Jackson county more than forty years. Mr. Starns has been a resident of Missouri 70 years.

Times Are Bad for Steamship Barbers

NEW YORK.—Barbers on Atlantic liners are now complaining about safety razors, which have reduced their profits to such an extent that they have been compelled to eke out a living by selling all kinds of notions, from ribbons to chewing gum. In the pasty days barbers were inclined to regard with scorn and to keep waiting the passenger who shaved himself and only came to the shop for a hair cut. On the White Star line the daily rush for shaves among first cabin passengers was recognized by the company, and one of its rates, 60c, section 8, read:

"Tubers of the White Star steam ships are not allowed to cut passengers' hair before noon."

All morning the barbers were kept busy, and in the afternoon from 4 o'clock until dinner time, scraping the chins of passengers who would not take a chance of cutting themselves with the old-fashioned razors as the ship pitched up and down or rolled from side to side.

As convincing proof of this, a prisoner of Polish birth was brought out to converse with an attorney of the illustrious attorney's office. The latter is somewhat of a linguist and boasts of being able to converse in 12 different languages. The prisoner, who was formerly engaged as a foreign banker, just went the young attorney three better. SUCH EVIDENCE OUT READERS CANNOT DIS-

As we take up THE LEADER week by week, we are struck by the hearty, unmistakable way in which witness after witness speaks out as Mrs. McClelland does here. If these people were stronger living miles away, we might take little notice of them. But they are not. They are our neighbors, living among us.

Their word is too easily proved to admit of any doubt. They speak out in the hope that their experience may be a guide to others.

Mrs. Anna McClelland, 541 West Second street, Maysville, Ky., says: "Diana's Kidney Pills did a lot of good and I recommend them as doing just what is claimed for them. AGRICULTURAL DAY

All Schools in Mason County Dismissed to See Big Exhibit

The Kentucky exhibition train of native farm products left Lexington yesterday morning on its State-wide tour of education and will arrive at the C. & O. depot in Mayville tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Miss Jessie O. Yancey, Superintendent of Mason County Schools is in charge of the local arrangements and will marshal all the Mason county teachers and pupils who will inspect the great exhibit. Dover will come 50 strong, while the even big Mayville transportation school wagons and one from Minerva are coming loaded with 300 pupils and teachers. Verily, it will be one of the most important occasions for the children and farmers of Mason county ever held.

The agricultural train consists of seven coaches and a flat car for demonstration purposes and will visit seventy counties.

The train in all its appointments is a veritable agricultural college and experiment station on wheels: Seeds and soils, fertilizers, soil fertility, how to grow alfalfa, soiling crops, the value of ensilage, testing seeds, chemical analysis of soils, etc., etc.

The train is in charge of J. W. Newman, State Commissioner of Agriculture, and Prof. Thompson R. Bryant, a member of the Ken tucky Experiment Station staff.

President H. S. Barker of State University is a member of the party and will tell the people of the great work the University is doing for her sons, her daughters and for the advancement of her natural resources.

CHILDREN INJURED

Ordinary Cathartics and Pills and Harsh Physics Cause Distressing Complaints

You cannot be over careful in the selection of medicines for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given, except in emergency cases. Ordinary pills, cathartics and purgatives are apt to do more harm than good. They may cause griping pains and other distressing after effects that are frequently health-destroying.

I personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orlidolies as the safest and most dependable remedy, which I know, for constipation and associate bowel disorders. I have such absolute faith in the virtues of this remedy that I sell it on my guarantee of money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and I urge all in need of such medicine to try it at my risk.

Today the Republicans of New York and Indiana will declare whether Taft or Roosevelt is the choice of the party for President at the November election.

The Interstate Commerce Commission by a vote of four to three, decided that a railroad must so adjust its rates that justice will be done between communities regardless of State lines.

Rexall Orlidolies are as safe as candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night, do not cause diarrhea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regu lative upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orlidolies commonly relieve constipation, except, of course, when of a surgical character. They also tend to overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition. Three sizes, 10c, 25c and 50c. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at my store—The Rexall Store, Thos. J. Chanoweb, corner Second and Sutton streets.

SHE SUFFERED TEN MONTHS

Mrs. Blankenship Tells of Her
Restoration to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time.

"Now I have been restored to health and it has come from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what this medicine has done for me and I will always speak a good word for it."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENSHIP, Elliston, Va., Montgomery Co.

Was Helpless—Now Well.

Trenton, Mo.—"About two years ago I had female trouble and inflammation so bad that I was literally helpless and had to be tended like a baby. I could not move my body or lift my foot for such severe pains that I had to scream. I was very nervous and had a weakness.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me to such an extent that I think there is no medicine like it for female troubles. I am up and able to do my work again and I give you full permission to publish my letter for the sake of other suffering women."—Mrs. W. T. FURNELL, 320-10th St., Trenton, Mo.
